

Upon completion of this TECH Module, you should be able to:

- Understand how to work with abstract classes and its uses
- Understand how to work with interfaces and its uses
- Understand how to work with packages and its uses
- Understand how to handle exceptions and its uses
- Understand how to define user exceptions and its uses
- Implement mini-project using all the concepts learned