

Upon completion of this TECH Module, you should be able to:

- Understand where to apply the concept of AJAX.
- Understand how to use AJAX for improving application performance.
- Understand how to create AJAX applications to perform server checks or validations.
- Write programs using JavaScript and XMLHttpRequest object to dynamically send request to and receive response from server, without reloading the entire page.
- Write programs to get data from the database and update a page section, without reloading the web page.
- Implement mini-project using HTML, JavaScript, AJAX, Servlet, JDBC and JSP.