Web Page Creation

Step1>Create a webpage that will have five frames.

Step2>Create Five HTML pages for corresponding frames(Footer, Header, logo, menu and login)

Step2>Header page content should be bold and It should be aligned in the center.

Step3>Add a background color for header page.

Step4>Create a login page which will have username, password and Login button.

Step5>Use table to display the elements as shown below.

Step7>Copy right information should bold and Italic and it should be aligned in center.

Step8>Left corner screen of the frameset should have a logo on it.

Output:

Note: Username and password field should be of 8 characters.
        Values in the password field should not be readable to the user.
        Do not use any patented logo for the logo symbol.
        All the data used to print should be of static.