After gaining knowledge of the above module, below are the possible interview questions that you should be able to confidently answer.

No	Questions
1	Explain MVC architecture relating to J2EE
2	What is the difference between a Web server and an application server
3	What are ear, war and jar files? What are J2EE Deployment Descriptors?
4	HTTP is a stateless protocol, so how do you maintain state? How do you store user data between requests?
5	Explain the life cycle methods of a servlet?
6	What is the difference between doGet () and doPost () or GET and POST?
7	What are the ServletContext and ServletConfig objects? What are Servlet environment objects?
8	What is the difference between forwarding a request and redirecting a request?
9	What is a filter, and how does it work?
10	Explain the life cycle methods of a JSP?
11	What are the main elements of JSP? What are scriplets? What are expressions?
12	What are the different scope values or what are the different scope values for <jsp:usebean> ?